

When I am reading I can use the following things to help me:

I can use the pictures to help me.

I can break words down into their individual sounds.

I look for smaller words inside words.

I use punctuation to help make sense of what I am reading.

I sound out and blend words I don't know.

When I am reading I can use the following things to help me:

I go back and read a word or sentence again if I don't understand it.

I listen to what I am reading to see if it makes sense.

I read on to see if I can work out the meaning of a word I don't know.

I check that I am right by going back to look at words carefully.

When I am reading I can use the following things to help me:

I can tell I've made a mistake and go back to try and put it right.

I talk through my ideas, thoughts and feelings about what I'm reading.

I ask questions to help me with my reading if I don't understand.

I think about what might happen in the book and I can say why.
